

Manage your resources with a values state of mind

Forty-two percent of Americans define "success" as being involved in the community and 37% say it's partaking in charitable activities.¹

Manage your money in a way that reflects your goals—and your values. Start by making intentional choices about how you share, save and spend money. We'll show you how. Join us for a free EIFLE Award-winning educational workshop:

More Than Money Matters®: Stewardship and Values

In just [60/90] minutes, this workshop will help you:

- Describe what stewardship means in your life.
- Identify your values.
- Develop a solid foundation for money management.

When: Sun, Sept 16 at 12:00pm; Tues, Sept 18 at 7:30pm

Where: St. Andrew Lutheran Church; TBD

Offered by: Thrivent Financial for Lutherans representatives

John Negovetich, Financial Guide

Aliza Manzella, Financial Associate

RSVP: Sign up on the registration form at the Social Ministry Table OR Contact Anita at 847-566-8081 or email parishadmin@standrewmundelein.com and reserve your spot today.

Complimentary refreshments will be provided at the workshop.

"Very informative on a financial well-being as well as on a personal and spiritual level." –Workshop participant

¹Northwestern Mutual's American Reality Study, January 2009

For important Thrivent Financial for Lutherans disclosure information, please visit Thrivent.com/disclosures.