The Pastor's Pen

On the last page of each issue of The Lutheran magazine is a column by Elizabeth Eaton, the Presiding Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Bishop Eaton's column has become one of my favorite parts of the magazine. I find her remarks about the life and mission of the church to be consistently insightful and enriching. If you don't normally read the bishop's column, I encourage you to check it out.

In her column in the April issue of the magazine, Bishop Eaton wrote about the challenges facing congregations as they try to do ministry in our rapidly changing society – a society, for example, that is becoming more and more religiously diverse. She invited us to think about how we ought to respond to the challenging and changing times in which we live. Should we “work harder and harder developing innovative programming”? Should we “discover our congregation's niche”? Should we “circle the wagons and hold ever more tightly to what we have left”?

I won't recap the whole column for you (though I did share it with our church council at a recent council retreat), but I will tell you the main point that Bishop Eaton ends up making: As important as it is to be creative and innovative, and as much value as there is in preserving our traditions and our heritage, what the church needs to do more than anything is what the church has always been called to do, namely, “to speak about the love of God that has been given to us in the crucified and risen Christ.”

“The best thing about the church, . . . is . . . Jesus.”

“The best thing about the church,” Bishop Eaton wrote, “the thing that is uniquely the church, is . . . Jesus. If we as a people, and as congregations, don't get that right it doesn't matter how many programs we come up with.”

Bishop Eaton is exactly right. At the heart of our life together, and at the heart of the ministry God has called us to be about, is Jesus. If we allow ourselves to lose our focus on the crucified and risen Christ, then nothing else we do as a church will make much difference.

Rally Day Fall Festival “God's Work, Our Hands”

Celebrating St. Andrew's
66 Years of God's Grace

Help us celebrate the beginning of St. Andrew's church school year on Sunday, September 13th as we “Share Christ” with our community. All of Mundelein and surrounding areas are invited to join in the Christian festivities. Beginning with an outdoor service we will have activities, “faith centered” games, food, and fun for all ages. Invite your families, friends, and neighbors to be part of this discipleship and outreach festival!

Contact Tina Routledge, Danny Mivelaz or the church office with questions or to volunteer.

Worship While Away

Sermons and the underlying Gospel reading are available on St. Andrew's web site.

www.standrewmundelein.com

As we respond to the changes that are happening all around us – including changes here in Mundelein and Lake County – may God help us to be as creative and imaginative as we can, even as we remain grounded in our Lutheran and congregational heritage. More than anything, however, may God help us to stay focused on Christ. May we be growing in our own relationship with Christ. And may we, both as individuals and as a congregation, be sharing Christ with our neighbors. In a changing and challenging world, there is nothing more important than that.

Thank you for your partnership in the ministry of the gospel!

Quilters' Crossing

August! Summer is at its height. Because of the unusually wet spring and the wet start of summer; there have not been too many garage sales. We did, however; receive many items from the Scout Rummage Sale for which we are very thankful. We also received bags and boxes of donated fabric and fillers from an anonymous source. Thank you very, very much to whomever you are.

The Quilters are busy this summer assembling Baby Care Kits. We are still in need of sleepers and individually wrapped bars of soap.

The Quilters are busy every Thursday morning between 9 and 12 noon. We can always use help. From teenagers thru adults, men or women. There are many things to be done besides sewing, just ask Judy Parriott's house guest for the summer. Kat has found out that we thoroughly enjoy what the quilting group does for LWR. We also have nice conversations and "goodies" to snack on.

Once again, thank you St. Andrew Church for your caring congregation for the needs of others less fortunate than we.

Questions? Call Judy at 847-566-5398 or Shirley at 847-548-5540

Back to School Backpacks

Lutheran Social Services of Illinois (LSSI) has asked St. Andrew to help contribute to their back-to-school backpack and supply collection for the elementary school students they serve.

Last year we provided 6 backpacks and hope to do so again.

We found that it was most cost-effective and efficient for the church to shop for bulk prices of the contents last year. The cost per backpack is $35.

We will make purchases based on contributions Received by Sunday August 9th.

Your $35 donation, per backpack, made out to St. Andrew (LSSI Backpacks on the envelope) will provide the following for an orphan or LSSI Client recipient. Thank you!

Women's Fellowship

Women's Fellowship...mark your calendars for our 2015-2016 events! All meetings are at church at 7:00 PM on the SECOND Thursday of each month. Please plan on joining us and invite your friends, neighbors and family members! Some specifics are yet to be determined.

Thursday, September 10 – Everyone is invited to the Women's Fellowship Kick Off. Dr. Holli DeVon will be sharing her research and expertise about HEALTH CONCERNS, specifically signs and situations of strokes. She will be happy to answer your questions. We are excited to welcome her back as a presenter.

Encounter Reaches Out

Donn Hamm wanted to know about how far reaching the Encounter is --- I'm in the Buffalo, NY area and Anita has continued, to "keep me in the loop" since I left the congregation in 2007. Pastor Selbo has always made such a lasting and positive impression on me, from his amazing sermons to his helping me through my husband's passing. Also, I still continue to keep in touch with some of the members and enjoy keeping up with St. Andrew's growth and accomplishments. So "keep 'em coming", and thank you.

Professional Pictures?

You need a professional family keepsake picture and St. Andrew needs an up-to-date church directory.

It has been several years since St. Andrew has had an up-to-date church phone directory and we are in the planning stages for a new directory with pictures of all the individuals and families.

We have contacted LifeTouch and are making plans for them to be available for individual and family pictures the first week in November.

This is a win, win for St. Andrew members as you will have the opportunity for a professional portrait and St. Andrew will receive free picture phone directories for all that participate.

An opportunity to schedule your portrait photo will be made in October so watch for more information.

PRAYER VENTURES

August 2015

These petitions are offered as guides to prayer for the global, social and outreach ministries of the church. Thank you for your continued prayers for the life and mission of this church.

- 1 We remember in our prayers students preparing for a new school year and pray they will grow in intellect and spirit alike.
- 2 We give thanks that we are fed daily by God's word and that our faith is deepened for service and witness in the world.
- 3 This month a group of young adults in the Young Adults in Global Mission program begin their service with the newly established Lutheran Church in Cambodia. We pray for a rich experience for these young adults and for the body of Christ to prosper in Cambodia.
- 4 As congregations and synods prepare for fall programs, we remember in prayer the leaders and volunteers who give of their time and focus their attention on serving all ages as witnesses and bearers of the faith.
- 5 For young people who struggle with school or have learning disabilities, we pray for caring, creative and skilled teachers and adults in their lives. We also ask God to grant their parents wisdom and patience for the challenges they face.
- 6 Our church is blessed with 26 colleges and universities, and eight seminaries. We pray for the support and encouragement of faculty and staff who train, educate and inspire students to pursue vocations in the church and society.
- 7 We pray for continued healing in communities that have suffered tragedies of racial hatred and pray that all communities and churches commit themselves to discussions and actions of justice, peace and reconciliation for all God's children.
- 8 The gifts of creation, natural resources and all forms of life have sustained and fascinated us from the beginning of time. We ask God to stir our sense of wonder, help us act responsibly with concern for the present and future, and live with mindful gratitude.
- 9 We remember in our prayers that Jesus is the true son of God and the real bread of life, giving us hope and eternal life.
- 10 The ELCA Youth Gathering may be over but we pray for the participants, both youth and adults, that they will continue their growth as followers of Christ and serve with enthusiasm their congregations, communities and world.
- 11 We give thanks for educators and school staff and for all the ways in which they teach, influence and care for their students.
- 12 We pray for the reassurance of God's Spirit when we are tempted to think the church is dying in our society and culture. May we instead recognize signs of God's presence and thriving word and trust God's Spirit is active in the world.
- 13 Florence Nightingale, Clara Maass We remember in our prayers today women and men serving in the profession of nursing, especially parish nurses and faith-community nurses, who serve the health, wellness and spiritual needs of people.
- 14 We thank God for the service and witness of congregations involved in summer mission trips and service-learning experiences and pray for the growth of relationships of care and respect between communities and congregations.
- 15 Mary, Mother of our Lord Let our prayers today be guided by Mary's song of praise calling attention to God's presence and care for the humble, poor and powerless among us.
- 16 Jesus Christ gathers us around word and water, wine and bread. We give thanks that being grounded in God's love and forgiveness equips us to live and serve each day as saints and sinners in the world.
- 17 We remember in our prayers the Lutheran resource centers serving synods and congregations throughout the ELCA and give thanks for the creative, tangible support they offer our leaders and volunteers.

18 For countries suffering economic crises, lack of sustainable development or debilitating poverty, we ask that God’s mercy and wisdom be present in the discussions, intentions and actions of leaders seeking lasting solutions.

19 For the joy and diversity of summer festivals, neighborhood celebrations and community gatherings, we give thanks.

20 We give thanks to God for a world and church of many cultures, races and languages. We pray that we continue to find ways of embracing each other and sharing our diverse gifts and abilities in service and witness of Christ.

21 Seminary students of diverse backgrounds and gifts prepare diligently for lives of ministry and service in the world. We support their journeys of education and discernment through our prayers.

22 When days are heavy or joy is scarce, we pray to be reminded of the psalmist’s words, “O LORD of hosts, happy are they who put their trust in you!”

23 We confess that understanding, following and proclaiming Jesus is not always easy, and we pray for the Spirit to help us trust in the words of eternal life found only in Jesus.

24 Bartholomew (Nathanael) As Philip found Nathanael and invited him to meet and believe in Jesus, we, too, pray for the boldness to share the good news of Jesus Christ and invite others to believe and follow.

25 We pray for the Reformed Church in America, an ELCA full communion partner, and for the continuing growth of our relationship as together we share the gospel and serve in the world.

26 In a time when it is easy to divide neighbor against neighbor and harden our hearts against each other, we pray that God will soften our hearts and teach us to live in community as forgiven and loved children of God.

27 Seasonal summer workers are often uprooted

this time of the year. We pray they find new employment and experience support and stability in caring congregations and communities.

28 We are a church together, and we ask God for a bold faith that enables us to face together and work through the most daunting challenges of our country and world, including poverty, gun violence, racism, political division, care for the environment and social disparity.

29 In a world filled with messages vying for our attention, we pray to be attentive to God’s word, to listen carefully and to be moved to action by the Spirit.

30 We remember in our prayers the diverse traditions, rituals and practices – old and new – of our church and pray that, centered in Christ, they will serve to inspire and energize our faith and daily life.

31 We persist in our prayers for wherever conflict and war are a daily concern and pray we may have the faith and courage to work for peace and reconciliation everywhere – in the name of Jesus Christ.

Rally Day September 13th

a Community-Wide Event:

Join us this year for another day of fun and fellowship. Rally Day will be held on September 13th, 2015. More information on page one!

Our mission as a congregation is to Share Christ. More specifically, it is to help people come to know Christ, to grow in their relationship with Christ and his Church, and to be equipped to serve and witness in Christ's name. We would love to have you join us in this mission.
