"Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity." – Ecclesiastes 1:2

This verse from the beginning of the book of Ecclesiastes was part of our Old Testament reading for Sunday, July 31. It's a verse that is perhaps the most cynical verse in the whole Bible. It says that everything that happens in the world is pointless and empty, that everything is fruitless and without meaning. As we continue to hear reports of violence and chaos in the world, it's a verse that we might be tempted to agree with. But even though it might seem to fit with much of what is happening in our world, it's a verse that can never serve as a philosophy of life for a follower of Christ.

... serving
and giving glory to God is the reason we

As Christians, we believe that life has meaning. When God created the world, and also when God sent Jesus to redeem the world, God was saying that all is not vanity. God was saying that life is worthwhile and has a purpose. For the Christian, the purpose of life is to serve and give glory to God.

As we prepare for the beginning of our fall schedule here at St. Andrew (Rally Day is August 28), it's good to be reminded that there is a purpose behind all of the programs and activities in the life of our congregation. It's good to be reminded that in our life together as a church, as well as in our own personal lives, serving and giving glory to God is the reason we are here.

Giving glory to God is why we worship; it's why we gather every Sunday to sing and pray and hear God's Word. Giving glory to God is why we love our neighbor; it's why we sew quilts, and go on work camp trips, and volunteer with the PADS homeless ministry. Giving glory to God is why we study the Bible; it's why we offer Sunday School and Head to the Heart and adult Bible study groups. Giving glory to God is why we share the good news of Christ; it's why we reach out with the gospel to our community and our world. In short, serving and giving glory to God is the reason for everything we do. It's the reason for our life together as a congregation.

(August 1st-August 5th from 9am-Noon):

Come on out for a new adventure and best of all it's FREE!!!

Quilters' Crossing

This is meant to be read.

Only takes a minute of your time.

Quilters are in need of the infant care kits bars of individually wrapped gentle soap. Many, many T-shirts (for making diapers).

Garage sales is a good source for these items as well as sleepers with or without feet. Can always use them. Attach a note to donated items with your name and or phone number and a statement that you read this in the Encounter.

T-shirts to be large or extra large.

There are many, many children in the world that don't have it as nice as our children do. The Quilters deeply appreciate all the contributions from St. Andrew members, neighbors and or friends.

Thank you, again, for reading this and answering our plea for the above items. Having faith that our prayers will be answered.

Respectfully submitted by Shirley Lueck and all St. Andrew Quilters!

Any questions? Call Judy at 847-566-5398 or Shirley at 847-548-5540

As followers of Jesus, we can say with confidence that all is not vanity. We can say that in spite of what we might see and hear on the evening news, life does have a purpose. But even more than saying it, we can live it. We can let all that we do be to the glory of God.

As we become involved in all of the activities that the fall schedule brings, let's remember what our involvement is about. We have been put on this earth to serve and glorify God – both as individuals and as a congregation.

To God be the glory!

Evangelism Update

On July 4th we had a cookout before the fireworks. Around 20 people attended for fellowship and hopefully this will continue next year.

As most of us know, there has been an increased amount of violence toward our police officers within the past months. On July 10th a group of people, who met at Kraukleur Park for a Peace/Prayer, walked over to the Mundelein Police Department. Members from the Village Board, St. Andrew, Community Protestant and LaVina, who sponsored it, walked over and prayed for our community, our nation, as well as the police department. Police officers even came out so we could pray over them. We so need to show others how much we care for them not only during hard times but all the time!

On July 16th, over 20 members of St. Andrew went to Worship Night In America at the Sears Centre Arena. Over 10,000 people of all denominations, of all nationalities, came together to praise and worship God. Chris Tomlin, Max Lucado, Lou Giglio and others led us in our praise and worship. The love of God and His presence was wonderful. The message was that no matter what problems are going on in your life, in your community, in our nation or in the world, the solution is not to go to a friend, it's not who we elect to run our nation. It's getting on our knees in the mercy position crying out to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ asking Him to take care of the problems as we don't know what to do. Come to Jesus and cast all your cares on Him.

On another note: St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst has invited our members and especially the youth to an awesome FREE outdoor worship concert being held there on August 28 at 6PM. The Christian rock band "Bread of Stone" will be there to give praise to Christ and give Christian youth a fun and safe concert to attend. You may remember Bread of Stone if you attended this year's QUAKE. So mark your calendars!

God Bless,

Danny & Cindy Mivelaz

Bible Journaling Group

Have you heard of Bible journaling? If not, it is a creative way to be connected to scripture by using the gifts God gave us to worship Him and express our faith. It is also a growing community of brothers and sisters in Christ who are excited to document what God is doing in their lives in a beautiful way.

It might be fun to start a Bible journaling meetup at St. Andrew--a space for us to gather together, so we can share ideas, be creative and have fun. No artistic skills or experience required--just a desire to share our love for God.

If you are interested in being a part of a Bible journaling gathering or have any questions about it, please contact Kristin Dugenske (847-371-1837 or EnglishKris24@gmail.com). If there's enough interest in starting a group like this, we'll share more information.

STEWARDSHIP –

“Is it YOUR WAY OF LIFE?”

The Stewardship and Finance Teams would like to thank everyone for their continued financial support of St. Andrew! Giving is thankfully exceeding expectations which keeps us up and running and able to meet the physical and spiritual needs of our congregation in the community! THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!! If it is possible, we are looking for some extra assistance to replace our boiler/heating system. The response also has been good – we are almost to our goal!

It is hard to believe that summer is almost over already! I pray that you have had time to relax and enjoy family and the beautiful outdoors. Many of you I know have continued to volunteer where needed helping to keep our church property looking its best, working in the garden, helping with the Mundelein Summer LUNCH program, assisting with our worship services, continuing to sew with the quilters, planning fun fellowship activities within the church, attending work camp or volunteering in other community events. Whew! Vacation Bible School will be underway by the time you read this; many of you will make that a successful, fulfilling experience for the adults and children that participate.

It is time to start thinking about where you will fit in when all of our fall activities start up again. Please watch and listen for those opportunities! Don't keep your gifts and talents to yourself!

Last Sunday in church as I listened to the second reading, it struck me that our lives can be much easier and fulfilling by living our lives for Christ and letting him in to lead and guide us! “Listen”, “let him in”! We have been given all we need to live a Godly life because God is present and he is with us!

Colossians 1:15-23:

“Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him –provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.”

See you in church,
Lyn Hayes

“Gracious God, draw me close to you through the cross of Christ and help me see that I am a gift. Lead me in the direction I should go to work to your Glory.” Amen.

St. Andrew Fellowship/Movie Night

Saturday, August 20th, 2016

Food will be served from 5 to 6:15 , with movie starting at 6:30 p.m.

This month's movie will be Grace Card. - Everything can change in an instant ... and take a lifetime to unravel. When Mac McDonald loses his son in an accident, the ensuing 17 years of bitterness and pain erodes his love for his family and leaves him angry with God ... and just about everyone else.

Every day, we have the opportunity to rebuild relationships and heal deep wounds by extending and receiving God's grace. Offer THE GRACE CARD... and never underestimate the power of God's love.

Thank You, Danny, Cindy & Tim Mivelaz

PRAYER VENTURES

August 2016

1 We remember in our prayers students who have returned or are preparing to return to school that they will grow strong in wisdom, faith, knowledge and friendship with their peers.

2 We give thanks to God for the special work of teachers, principals, custodians, cooks, student teachers, administrative staff, counselors, librarians, nurses, bus drivers and all who play a role in the education, well-being and development of our children and youth.

3 In the face of threats of terror and uncertainty in the world, we pray that we embrace God as our refuge and strength and resist the human urge to respond with violence, debilitating fear or hatred.

4 We remember in our prayers regions and communities across the United States that have suffered loss and hardship from flooding, wildfires and severe weather. We ask that those who suffer and are trying to recover experience God's presence and hope, as well as the caring assistance of emergency responders, relief workers and neighbors.

5 We come to God in our human weakness and distress and pray God will grant us the bold faith and courage needed to speak peace and reconciliation into the commotion of hatred and division that exists today and live the truth that all people are created in God's image.

6 For all ELCA pastors, rostered leaders and missionaries we give thanks to God. We pray they find daily encouragement, spiritual renewal and supportive partners for the work God has called them to in the world.

7 We give thanks to God for the certain gift of eternal life we have in Jesus Christ and pray that this confidence will set us free to love our neighbor and be generous with everything we have, especially for the well-being of people who live in poverty and hunger.

8 ELCA Churchwide Assembly We remember in our prayers the pastors, leaders and voting members gathered in New Orleans for the 2016 Churchwide Assembly. We pray the Spirit will guide and energize their discernment, discussions and decisions that shape the mission of the ELCA and how we go about God's work in the world.

9 International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples There are an estimated 370 million indigenous peoples living around the world. We ask God to stretch our awareness and empathy and move us to join the work to protect and promote the rights, culture and land of indigenous people – children of God, brothers and sisters in Christ.

10 Grace Gathering We pray the Spirit will bless the experience of all those gathered at the Grace Gathering in New Orleans and that God's people will be recharged for faith-driven, heartfelt witness and service in the world as Lutheran Christians.

11 We remember in our prayers the bishops and staff of our 65 synods that God will sustain and encourage them in their faith and ministries as they serve and support congregations, leaders and communities across the country.

12 International Youth Day We pray young people everywhere will thrive, be healthy and live with hope alongside caring, attentive adults, parents and mentors.

13 Nurses serve in many contexts and attend to the physical, spiritual and emotional needs of people of all ages – from birth to death. We give thanks for their gifts and service and pray God will strengthen and sustain them for the ever-changing challenges they face.

14 We ask God to grant us courage, hope and a confidence grounded in Jesus Christ, especially when our service and witness in the world proves difficult or discouraging.

15 Mary, Mother of Our Lord We are all bearers of good news – the gospel – no matter our social standing, abilities, education, age or position. We ask the Spirit to permeate everything we say and do with expressions of joy and hope.

16 We give thanks to God for the leadership, service and vision of Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton and pray that God will continue to strengthen her faith, deepen her wisdom and bless her witness and ministry on behalf of the ELCA.

17 Refugees and immigrants in the world continue to seek safe, welcoming communities in which to live, work, form new relationships and become self-sufficient. We pray God will safeguard their journeys and provoke us to be active in welcoming, supporting and advocating for all who are displaced by war, national instability, poverty or persecution.

18 We pray that we will tell without reluctance or shyness the story of God's presence, love and justice in the world throughout history and not forget to weave in our own stories as loved and forgiven children of God.

19 We remember in our prayers the young adults serving in Rwanda with the Young Adults in Global Mission program. We ask God to bless their work with the congregational, social and reconciliation ministries of the Lutheran Church of Rwanda.

20 We give thanks to God for the young adults who have served in ELCA outdoor ministries this summer and ask God to bless their lives and drive their desire to serve others – in the name of Jesus Christ – as they return to school, work, new ministries or volunteer opportunities.

21 When traditions, routines or rituals – even those of the church – inhibit us from caring for our neighbor, we ask God for the wisdom to discern what is most important and to not fear change for the sake of doing God's work in our communities and the world.

22 We remember in our prayers Jenna Bergeson, the Rev. Carolyn Schneider, the Rev. Wayne Nieminen and the Rev. Christa VonZychlin, ELCA missionaries serving in Hong Kong. We ask God to bless their work in theological education and teaching English with our partner churches and institutions.

23 We give thanks to God for being our hope and trust, our refuge and rock, from the day we are born until we enter the kingdom of heaven.

24 We ask God to help us be faithful followers, students and servants of Jesus Christ, bold in our faith and willing to go wherever God sends or leads us in the world, even into our own neighborhoods.

25 We pray for the Reformed Church in America, a full communion partner with the ELCA, and for the continuing growth of our relationship as together we share the gospel and do God's work in the world.

26 In the midst of our country's discussions and impassioned debates about reducing gun violence, we ask God's forgiveness for our failures to keep human lives – God's handiwork and gift – in the foreground. We plea for God's help and wisdom in reaching self-sacrificing, life-valuing, effective answers – together.

27 Katherine Graf, Rachel Eskesen and Aliyah Richling serve as ELCA missionaries in Hungary. We pray for their partnership and service with small and re-emerging Lutheran churches, especially in the areas of teaching, Roma ministry and parish ministry.

28 As followers of Jesus Christ, we pray that our spirit and actions express humility, concern for our neighbor and a desire to first honor and serve others rather than ourselves.

29 As congregations prepare programs for fall, we ask God to bless their planning and leadership. We pray their efforts and creativity will encourage people of all ages in their faith and touch the hearts of those who yet seek or hunger for the good news found in Jesus Christ.

30 Following God's ways and trusting in God's love, our hearts are firm and steady, and we are not afraid; for these blessings we give praise and thanksgiving to God.

31 We remember in our prayers seasonal workers seeking new employment, moving or facing the emotions that come with change. We pray that our congregations be inviting and welcoming for people in transition, that we are communities of faith offering acceptance, stability, friendship and support.

"Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act."
Proverbs 3: 27

Rally Day August 28th

a Community-Wide Event:

Join us this year for another day of fun and fellowship. Rally Day will be held on August 28th, 2016. More information on page one!

Our mission as a congregation is to Share Christ. More specifically, it is to help people come to know Christ, to grow in their relationship with Christ and his Church, and to be equipped to serve and witness in Christ's name. We would love to have you join us in this mission.
