

St. Andrew Lutheran Church Encounter

August 2017

The Pastor's Pen

Pastor Selbo is on vacation, this is a reprint of an article written by Pastor Selbo in 2010 but it is very timely and very relevant today. - the editor

By the time you read this, the St. Andrew work camp team will have returned from their week of service. Along with hundreds of other campers from across the country, the youth and adults from our congregation spent the week of painting, repairing and refurbishing the homes of elderly, disabled and low-income residents. They also spent time singing, playing, praying, worshipping and studying the Bible. They grew in relationship with one another. And they made friends with other campers and with the residents on whose houses they were working. In short, they had a great week as they lived out, in a very intentional way, what it means to be the body of Christ in the world.

I encourage you to make a commitment to be more involved ...

Even though not all of us have the opportunity to participate in a work camp trip, in our life together as a congregation we can all still share in the same kinds of experiences as our work campers do. Worship, study, fellowship, service and witness – those are the elements that make for a great week of work camp, and those are also the elements that define our life together here at St. Andrew.

As we prepare, in a few short weeks, for Rally Day and the beginning of our fall schedule, I encourage you to make a commitment to be more involved than ever in the life of our church. Worship regularly. Participate in a Bible study or a class. Spend time, informally or in a more structured way, with fellow church members. Look for opportunities to serve. And let your faith show itself through your words and your actions. As you do, you, like our work campers, will grow in your faith. And you'll have the satisfaction of knowing that you're helping to make St. Andrew a stronger, more vibrant congregation.

I'm grateful to those who gave up a week of their summer to be a part of this year's work camp trip. And I'm grateful, too, to all the members of St. Andrew who give of their time and abilities to actively participate in the life of our church. May God's blessing be on each of us as we live together as the body of Christ.

See you in worship!
Pastor Selbo

Rally Day Fall Festival "God's Work, Our Hands"

Celebrating St. Andrew's
68 Years of God's Grace

Help us celebrate the beginning of St. Andrew's church school year on Sunday, August 27th as we "Share Christ" with our community.

All of Mundelein and surrounding areas are invited to join in the Christian festivities. Beginning with an indoor service at 10:30 a.m. We will have activities, "faith centered" games, food, and fun for all ages. Invite your families, friends, and neighbors to be part of this discipleship and outreach festival!

Contact the church office with questions or to volunteer.

Quilters' Crossing

"Summertime, and the livin' is easy." Hope you are enjoying your summer but that you haven't forgotten the quilters! We are still meeting every Thursday from 9 to noon. We will also meet the fourth Saturday in August (August 26) from 9 to noon.

Since this is the season for garage sales, please keep the quilters in mind as you shop. We can use sheets for backs of quilts, blankets and mattress pad for fillers, and items for baby care kits. We are in need of t-shirts size 6 months to 24 months. We can always use men's t-shirts large to x-large to go toward the 300 diapers we make for the kits.

Join us even if you only have a few hours. Sewing skills are not required - just time for fellowship and being able to help others. Thank you for your support!

Calling all middle school and high school students!

Ever wonder what the disciples did after Jesus' resurrection? The next thrilling chapter of their lives is told in the book of Acts, and that is what we will read in the Big Kids for Christ Sunday School class this year.

Join in the disciples' adventures on land and sea, meet heroes and villains, and learn the answer to that all-important question: What must I do to be saved?

Our first class will be September 10 at 9:30 a.m. We meet in the basement near the kitchen and there will always be food.

Who Cares Anyway?

St. Andrew Cares Fund is in Need!

St. Andrew Cares is a special assistance fund administered by Pastor Selbo and used to help people in need.

Many times during a month individuals and families come to our church with real needs.

Right now this fund is low and in need of donations. If you would like to make a contribution to this fund, you may give it to Pastor Selbo, send it to the church office, or place it in the Sunday morning offering plate.

Giving a gas card or a gift certificate from a grocery store is also a great way to help meet the needs of those who come to the church seeking help.

Thank you for your generosity!

St. Andrew Fellowship/Movie Night

*Saturday,
August 19, 2017*

Come join us for our monthly fellowship/movie night. Food will be served from 5:00 to 6:15, with movie starting at 6:30 p.m.

This month's movie will be

Amazing Grace

For most Americans, William Wilberforce isn't a household name. Amazing Grace may change that. This powerful film recounts the celebrated English reformer's fierce battle to abolish slavery in the British Empire. It also chronicles the faith journey of a man who struggled to reconcile his passion for justice and politics with his natural inclination to retreat into a secluded life of spiritual contemplation.

Chronic illness has forced Wilberforce to retreat to the home of his cousins Henry and Marianne Thornton to rest and reassess his wherewithal to keep championing an unpopular idea.

The Thorntons introduce Wilber (as his friends call him) to Barbara Spooner, a fiery young woman whose zeal for the abolition movement matches his own. And as he recounts his history to her, lengthy flashbacks fill in his backstory and introduce us to an idiosyncratic cast of supporting characters who play important roles in the battle against slavery.

PRAYER VENTURES

August 2017

These petitions are offered as guides to prayer for the global, social and outreach ministries of the ELCA, as well as for the needs and circumstances of our neighbors, communities and world. Thank you for your continued prayers for the life and mission of this church.

- 1 Ask God to bless communities, neighborhoods and military bases observing National Night Out this evening to help them be safe, caring places in which neighbors and law enforcement work together for the well-being of all.
- 2 We remember in our prayers ELCA missionaries Robin Strickler, the Rev. Kate Warn and the young adults serving in the Young Adults in Global Mission program in Rwanda. Pray that their ministries will be blessed as they work alongside companion churches and institutions sharing the gospel, strengthening and growing the church, serving communities, and striving for reconciliation, healing and justice.
- 3 Give thanks for the generosity of ELCA congregations supporting domestic and global ministries through Mission Support.
- 4 Remember and give thanks for the rich partnership and relationship we have with The Episcopal Church, a full communion partner with the ELCA since 1999, and ask God to further our work together sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor.
- 5 Pray for leaders, teachers and volunteers preparing for fall programs in congregations that the Spirit will stir their enthusiasm, creativity, confidence and a desire to share the gospel and nurture the faith of children, youth and adults.
- 6 When the disciples wanted to send hungry crowds away, Jesus said no, we can feed them. Ask God to stir our empathy, compassion and faith that, drawing on our collective resources and abundance, we have enough to share and will not turn away, ignore or disparage our neighbors who are hungry and in need.
- 7 Pray for leaders of our congregations and church gathered for the first ELCA Rostered Ministers Gathering in Atlanta, an opportunity for rostered ministers to meet colleagues for fellowship, share ideas and be refreshed and renewed for serving the church.
- 8 We pray – we plead – with God to help us end terror and violence in the world and to lift from us any fear, suspicion, anxiety, anger and even apathy that dwells in us.
- 9 Give thanks and praise to God for being attentive to our prayers, for being slow to anger, compassionate, loving and merciful with us.
- 10 Pray that every congregation will discover, use and carefully manage their diverse assets, resources of their community and abundance for growing the church, serving their neighbors, equipping and nurturing their members, and doing God's work in the world.
- 11 On this observance of International Youth Day, pray for children and youth that they experience the benefits of education, health care, clean water and stable food sources, and safe and caring environments to grow up in. Pray that they may know the joys of living, playing and dreaming as young people unencumbered and undiminished by persistent worry, violence or hopelessness.
- 12 We remember in prayer children and youth beginning a new school year and pray that with the help and inspiration of parents, teachers and caring adults in their lives, they will grow in faith, intellect, wisdom, confidence, curiosity and hope as maturing children of God.
- 13 Pray that when we are overcome by fear and terror, feel vulnerable and alone, helpless and ill-equipped, we remember and trust that God is ever-present, powerful and active in our lives and world.
- 14 Give thanks for nurses who attend with skill and compassion to our physical, emotional and spiritual needs in diverse communities, contexts and situations.
- 15 Mary, Mother of our Lord We are in awe of how God uses people like Mary who are humble and poor to reveal God's presence in the world and accomplish great things. Give thanks, praise and glory to God for the many ways in which we are called and sent into the world to share the good news of Jesus Christ and serve as humble witnesses of our faith.
- 16 Writers, poets, editors and bloggers inspire and inform us and stir our faith; praise God for the diversity of the body of Christ and for the gifts, insights and imagination they exercise and share with the church and world.
- 17 Ask God to help us understand and value the spirit of the teachings, movements, insights and leaders throughout history that have contributed to the shaping and growth of the Lutheran church. Pray that we continue to be dynamic, growing and unafraid of change as we listen to God's word, discern God's will and strive to be nimble and faithful in our plans, preparation and work as disciples – today and for the future.

18 Elijah listened for God in a wind storm, earthquake and fire but instead heard God in the silence and calm that followed. Pray for patience and discipline that amid our busy, loud, attention-grabbing world we also create places and times for stillness and calm in which we do nothing but listen and talk with God.

19 There is hope in the progress being made to halt the spread of HIV through prevention, treatment and care and in eliminating the stigma and discrimination experienced by those who are HIV-positive. Give thanks for the progress and pray for generous support and continuing commitment for the work of supporting children who've lost parents or guardians to the disease, training pastors in HIV and AIDS counseling, getting medicines to remote rural health clinics, making free HIV testing available, preventing new infections and transforming this church into a safe space for people living with HIV and AIDS.

20 Ask God to help us be persistent and faithful in prayer for our own lives and for the needs of the world.

21 We unite in prayer, fasting and advocacy with our brothers and sisters in Christ of The Episcopal Church that our nation, elected leaders, public-service agencies and communities will address with compassion, wisdom and concern for justice the cuts to public programs that are vital to hungry people who are living in poverty.

22 The Lutheran church has a rich history of education for children, youth and adults. Give thanks to God for our early childhood education centers, elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, seminaries, lay schools of theology and lifelong education programs related to the ELCA. Pray they flourish and continue to influence and enrich the lives of the people they touch.

23 Pray to God with a joy-filled and grateful heart, knowing that God's promises and mercy are immeasurable and trustworthy with life-giving blessings to savor and share.

24 We give thanks to God for the challenging work of teachers, principals, custodians, cooks, student teachers, administrative staff, counselors, librarians, nurses, bus drivers and all who play influential and supportive roles in the education, well-being and development of our children and youth.

25 We remember in our prayers the Rev. Phillip Baker and the Rev. Rosanne Swanson, ELCA missionaries serving in Indonesia. Pray that their ministries will be blessed as they work alongside companion churches and institutions sharing the gospel, training leaders, strengthening and growing the church, and serving the needs of communities.

26 We pray that God's saving power through Jesus Christ will be known throughout the world, that all may praise God and sing for joy.

27 Pray that when asked about our faith or who Jesus is, with the help of the Spirit, we reply enthusiastically in our own words "imperfect or insufficient as they may be" that Jesus is our Savior and the Son of the living God through whom we are loved, forgiven, opened to God's word and ways, set free on a new path in life and promised eternal life.

28 The world is vast and its people often unknown to us, despite technology and worldwide media. Trusting that we all have one Creator and Savior, we pray that the Spirit of God will move in us and among us, bringing us closer together that we will no longer be strangers but familiar and welcoming brothers and sisters in Christ.

29 Sing and shout prayers of thanks and praise to God for all God has done, taught us, blessed us with, revealed to us for the strengthening of our faith, and the countless ways in which God is present with us and equipping our congregations for every challenge and opportunity we encounter.

30 We remember in our prayers the ELCA missionaries serving in Hong Kong: the Rev. Jenna Bergeson, the Rev. Wayne Niemen, the Rev. Christa Vonzychlin and the Rev. Carolyn Schneider. Pray that God will bless and further their ministries working alongside companion churches and institutions training and encouraging leaders for ministry, sharing the gospel, and strengthening and growing the church.

31 Pray to God with humility as a servant and living sacrifice, asking for insight into the gifts and skills we each bring to the church and how "together" we can put them to use for the growth of the church and for the sake of our neighbors who cry out for good news, hope, comfort, connection and healing.

High Water Mark for help!

Due to extreme rainfall in a short amount of time, St. Andrew experienced several inches of water entering the lower level rooms. This flood water (several inches high) entered all the classrooms and the kitchen. Clean-up included the removal of all the water, drying all the rooms with fans and dehumidifiers and then the sanitation of all areas flooded. Below are a few of the volunteers that came to help 'super clean' the kitchen including the washing of all the dishes.

Grief Share

“Grief Share” – My family and I became involved with a wonderful program after the loss of our daughter. We found it to be very helpful. This message is to determine how many others, like us, would be interested in joining “Grief Share” in the fall. Grief of any kind, not just from losing a loved one. Meetings will be at St. Andrew. We will determine meeting time and day, depending on response to this request. If you are interested, please email me atpjm512@comcast.net or call the church office. Thank you and blessings! Rally Day August 27th

a Community-Wide Event:

Join us this year for another day of fun and fellowship. Rally Day will be held on August 27th, 2017. More information on page one!

Our mission as a congregation is to Share Christ. More specifically, it is to help people come to know Christ, to grow in their relationship with Christ and his Church, and to be equipped to serve and witness in Christ's name. We would love to have you join us in this mission.
