

Encounter

From Pastor Jenna Pulkowski Pastor's Pen

Dear St. Andrew family of faith,

Although our Ash Wednesday was shifted to an Ash Sunday, we still made it into the Land of Lent.

This year our theme invites us to explore how we are living in the now but not yet through Church Anew's "Unfinished: Discovering God's Call in the Not Yet".

Writing in the resource guide, the series' authors share, "Cross-marked and Spirit-sealed, we dwell in the space between the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus and the final fulfillment of God's hope-filled promises. We are not left alone to navigate this unfinished life by ourselves. God is here—present-tense, each and every day—calling to us, accompanying us, renewing and recreating us—over and over again."

The last three years have shaped us in ways that we're only just now beginning to articulate and understand. Yet to treat the pandemic as the strongest defining factor of who we are and who we are meant to be would mean that we miss out on God's life-giving promises, abundant love, and resurrection.

Although I often look at things through the lens of the pandemic, my primary identity is not actually rooted in that experience, however much it has shaped me. The mark of the cross which God seals us with in our baptisms is the identity that we have been created to bear. We invisibly bear that cross most days, although we visibly bear the ashy cross at the start of Lent each year. It is that cross to which God calls us to be rooted, to be shaped by the love of our savior, and it is in the empty tomb that God reminds us of the victory of the cross.

STEWARDSHIP - GOD'S WORK OUR HANDS AND HEARTS BUILD/PLANT/GROW - Jeremiah 29: 4-7

“Invest Where You Are”

St. Andrew is alive and well and we are moving forward! With the faithful response to our Fall Pledge Drive, our “family” has committed to giving over $214,000 toward our general fund and our benevolence giving. We have resoundingly said “yes” to “investing where we are, to committing to build, plant, and grow God’s kingdom, and to TRUST that God has incredible plans for us. We also have many faithful givers who share their treasure on a regular basis but have not pledged a specific amount due to various reasons. That is OK - we are still growing and I am sure these folks will continue to pray and support our family as they can knowing that God is by their side. Thank you!

We also want to thank our youngest members for their commitment! Many of them have promised to pray for their church and their families, to share their money with the church, to invite their friends and family to church, and to come to church as often as they can. Their commitments to a life of faith remind us that generous and abundant living starts at any age, and these promises are deeply encouraging.

During the coming months, our church leaders will be working to help us move forward in our growth. We must all continue our support of Pastor Jenna, our Council and each other to do the work God has called us to. We all have special gifts and talents that we can share. It is encouraging to see that we have folks who are stepping up and trying some new ways to help, including our youth serving on Sunday mornings. A few weeks ago we heard the story of Simon, who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew. Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people. Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.” Matthew 4: 19-22 God is not asking us to leave everything but he is asking us to listen and be who He has made us to be. He is asking us to show our thankfulness for all we have been given. Pastor Jenna asked us in her message the day we heard this story, “Who are you already made to be?” Things sometimes take time; we are on the way; we are on the right path on our faithful, loving journey!

Heavenly Father, thank You for the precious gifts You give that masterfully come together like pieces in a puzzle.....Amen.

Let’s continue to beautify and light our church with memories, remembrances and honors!!

We live in the now but not yet, the simul justus et peccator/simultaneously justified and (a) sinner. Through it all, God goes with us and before us, preparing the way and guiding us through it all with the tools of our faith and signs of God's promised eternal hope.

So, this year I invite you to join me in reframing our view of things so that rather than anything else—school, home, sports, the pandemic—we see ourselves through the sign of our hope: the cross.

If you need a place to start, here are a few things that I'm practicing myself or have heard others share:

- Enter into worship each week by dipping your finger into the font just outside the sanctuary and marking yourself with the sign of that cross, remembering that you are God's own beloved child
- Start each day with a breath and a prayer, maybe making use of one of the two devotionals St. Andrews has made available to you.
- Sit in a different seat in worship so that you might experience the look of awe and wonder on your neighbor's faces, and to see one another more clearly, more compassionately.
- Try coming to a different worship service than usual, even if you struggle with that style of worship. Wonder for yourself, "How is God at work even when we don't like what it looks like or sounds like?"
- If you're giving something up for Lent, how are you using the time you'd spend on that thing—even if it's just the time it takes to eat a piece of candy—to deepen your relationship with God and God's people?

As we dwell in that space between the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, may you too remember who you are first and foremost: the cross-sealed beloved child of God, the God who goes with you now and always.

Peace,
Pr Jenna

PRAYER VENTURES

March 2023

- 1 Woman's History Month Remember, celebrate and give thanks for the contributions, achievements, leadership, wisdom and gifts of women and girls throughout history in the church, our communities and the world.
- 2 In January there were 52 mass shootings in our nation. Pray that God will hear our yearning for the peace, safety and transformation of our society for the sake of protecting life. Ask the Spirit to awaken us from the fear, numbness and feelings of powerlessness that can discourage us from taking risks and making sacrifices that will lead to consequential change in our nation.
- 3 Pray for people and communities impacted by flooding and storms in California and by tornadoes, flooding and severe weather across the southern United States. Remember those who grieve the loss of loved ones and homes, those suffering trauma and those in the long process of recovery, especially those without shelter and most vulnerable.
- 4 Pray that the invasion of Ukraine will end and that Russia will halt the violence that stands in the way of peace, reconciliation, recovery and healing. Pray especially for those who suffer most from the unrelenting misery, violence and destruction.
- 5 Ask God for the curiosity, boldness and humility of Nicodemus, a Pharisee who sought to understand Jesus, the ways of God and the work of the Spirit.
- 6 Remember in prayer people and communities recovering from the devastating earthquakes in Turkey and Syria. Ask God to sustain their hope, ease their grief and give them the resources they need for relief and rebuilding, especially in remote areas.
- 7 Give thanks for siblings in Christ, throughout history and in the present, who proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ and incite our faith in God's promise of love and forgiveness.
- 8 International Women's Day On this day we join our neighbors and siblings in Christ around the world in praying for the total inclusion, equity and advancement — social, economic and political — of women and girls everywhere. Give thanks for the work we do together through the ELCA International Women Leaders program, the Justice for Women program and ELCA World Hunger.
- 9 Pray that when we see or use the symbol of the cross, we will remember the sacrifice made by the Son of God — Jesus Christ — for the sake of the world, to free us from the constraints of human weakness, fear and death.
- 10 "I lift up my eyes to the hills — from where will my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth" (Psalm 121:1-2). Give thanks that God is mindful of our struggles and uncertainties and provides care, support and counsel through the people around us, including strangers. In turn, ask God to work through us so that we will be alert, empathetic and responsive to the needs of our neighbors.
- 11 Pray for college and university students during spring break, that they will be renewed, build friendships and serve their neighbors in need through service-learning experiences.
- 12 "I heard the voice of Jesus say, 'Behold, I freely give the living water, thirsty one; stoop down and drink and live'" (ELW 611). Give thanks that God attends to our spiritual thirst through the life-giving gift of Jesus Christ, who restores and sustains us to face life's challenges, share the gospel and do God's work in the world.
- 13 Pray for ELCA missionaries serving with our global companions in Asia and the Pacific: the Rev. Jeffrey Truscott and the Rev. Charles Peterson (Indonesia), the Rev. Jessica Derise (Thailand) and Julie Gerrish (Malaysia).
- 14 Pray that our prayer and song will express our joy, thanksgiving and praise to God — our creator, our defender and our source of salvation.
- 15 Give thanks for mid-week Lenten meals that draw us together, that we might reflect on our humanness, find hope and comfort in God's love and mercy, and strengthen our unity as children of God and siblings in Christ.

- 16 Pray that, when we experience quarreling, division and hardship as a community of faith, we will trust one another as siblings in Christ and turn to God for reassurance, knowing that the Spirit leads us to reconciliation and unity.
- 17 Thank God for the ELCA's special relationship with the Moravian Church in America, a full communion partner since 1999. Pray for the church, its members and its leaders, that together we will find strength and resources for the work of sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor.
- 18 Give thanks to God for those who harvest the abundance of lakes, rivers and oceans to feed themselves and others. Pray that they will be safe, that their fishing will be successful and that they will wisely and generously steward our food resources and environment for the sake of all generations.
- 19 Pray that, as our neighbors suffer misfortune, poverty, hunger, homelessness or physical or mental illness, we will not judge them, blame them or decide where they do and don't belong but will instead respond as Jesus did, with boundless mercy, respect, care and hospitality.
- 20 Remember in prayer leaders meeting in Minneapolis for the Assistants and Associates to Bishops Gathering. Pray that their faith, lives and ministries will be enriched and supported by their time together.
- 21 Give thanks that God has brought us out of darkness and into the light of Christ, which reveals what is good, just and pleasing to God.
- 22 World Water Day Praise God for the gift of water in all its forms. Pray that we will not take water for granted or squander it. Ask the Spirit to guide and sustain our efforts to guarantee all people and communities access to clean, safe and abundant water, a life-nourishing resource and gift from God.
- 23 Pray for the leaders across our church who serve on the ELCA Church Council. Ask the Spirit to guide and inspire their deliberations and work, which support, shape and further the growth and mission of our church in the world.
- 24 Oscar Arnulfo Romero, Bishop of El Salvador (1917-1980) Give thanks for the life of Bishop Romero and those who demonstrate courage and persistence in their faith, public witness, compassion and advocacy. Pray for those who still suffer poverty, violence, oppression and injustice in Central America.
- 25 With joy and thanksgiving, praise God for drawing us close and restoring our relationships, and celebrate that nothing can separate us from God's love, demonstrated to us through the life, sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
- 26 Amid solemn Lenten reflections, take heart and give thanks for the promise and proclamation Jesus made to Martha, the sister of Lazarus: "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live" (John 11:25).
- 27 Lift up prayerful sighs of relief and gratitude that God is our help and refuge, trustworthy and ever present. "My Jesus is a rock in a weary land, a shelter in the time of storm" (ELW 333).
- 28 How is the Spirit at work in you? Pray that we will be mindful of how the Spirit dwells within us and of the diverse and surprising results of its work.
- 29 Pray for ELCA missionaries serving with our global companions in Slovakia: Megan Freudenberg, Naomi and Nicholas Sveholm, the Rev. Kyle and Anna Svennungsen, the Rev. Bradn Buerkle, Elizabeth Kuster, Michelle Lauder-milk, Mitchell McDonald, John Rogers and Christina Sunstone.
- 30 Give thanks for the Lilly Endowment grant that will enable the ELCA and ELCA Youth Ministry Network to collaborate on new models for youth ministry, equip 3,000 leaders for ministry with younger generations and provide ELCA congregations with accessible and affordable resources to engage youth in faith formation.
- 31 Pray that our congregations will prove resilient to the severe weather that often comes with spring, serving as centers for relief, shelter and hope when disasters occur in their communities.

Flowers for Easter

All members and friends are invited to donate toward flowers in celebration of Easter.

It is always so refreshing to see the church come alive with blooms after the stark days of Lent, Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.

This year, rather than limiting the flowers to lilies, a variety of flowers will be included. Donations will not be for a specific plant, but rather to beautify the Narthex and Sanctuary for more than one week! Donors names will still be listed in the Easter bulletin along with the name of those that are being honored or remembered. What a wonderful way to honor and remember loved ones! The suggested donation is $20.

Please complete the form to the right. Together, with your cash or check, it can be placed on an offering plate or mailed to the church office. We cannot guarantee that forms received after April 1st will be listed in the Easter bulletin.

I wish to donate

Altar Guild

Consider making it a family commitment

The Altar Guild prepares the altar for Sunday's service and communion. Traditionally, this was Saturday morning but it can work on different schedules. The assignment schedule is prepared a year in advance and can involve only one month.

This is a wonderful opportunity for moms/dads and an older child to serve in this important ministry! By preparing communion for Sunday, the commitment to a vital church activity can be rewarding. Complete "how -to" information is available. Please contact Tana Hamm (tanahamm@comcast.net) or Anita if you would like to consider this as a family commitment.

QUILTERS CROSSING

"Those who sleep under a quilt, sleep under a blanket of love."

For more than 75 years compassionate people across the country (people like our beloved quilters and their devoted supporters) have put their faith into action and made quilts for people in need around the world. And not just a few quilts - nearly 28 MILLION QUILTS! These gifts of love make life brighter, softer and a bit more comfortable for our neighbors around the world struggling with chronic poverty, illness, natural disaster and conflict. In 2022, 220,317 quilts went to various countries including Ukraine and Poland.

On March 19, between services here at St. Andrew, we will be taking part in celebrating National Quilting Day with our Lutheran World Relief partners and our fellow congregations across the nation. We will be celebrating in Upper Nelson Hall with some treats, demonstrations and more information about this wonderful ministry that we have been a part of for over 34 years. As you have heard, we have contributed 6,000 of those quilts from St. Andrew and continue each week to do this work! Come and learn more, YOU are always welcome to become a part of this rewarding ministry!

WE ARE CONTINUALLY BLESSED TO BE ABLE TO BE A BLESSING TO OTHERS!
