

Encounter

From Pastor Jenna Pulkowski Pastor's Pen

¹ When Pentecost Day arrived, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound from heaven like the howling of a fierce wind filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what seemed to be individual flames of fire alighting on each one of them. ⁴ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them to speak. ~Act 2:1-4 CEB

On that day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit of God arrived just as Jesus had promised. In our baptisms, God breathes the Spirit onto us as we recall that first permanent indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

This is one of the reasons that I love celebrating Affirmation of Baptism Sunday on the same day as we celebrate Pentecost.

Students have spent the last 3 years intentionally preparing to say “yes” to their baptismal vows and to take on the promises their parents made on their behalf all those years ago. The same Spirit that God sent over them on the day of their baptisms is the same Spirit that swept over those who had gathered in Jerusalem for the Jewish Festival of Pentecost and, and it’s the same Spirit that we carry with us in our own lives each and every day.

As a tradition that affirms infant baptism, we acknowledge that the time comes for each kid to take on the promises made on their behalf. In our church—like many other Lutheran churches—we shift gears from Sunday school to Confirmation Class when kids are in 6th or 7th grade.

PARISH LIFE

A HUGE,
HEARTFELT
THANK YOU
to our Confirmation
youth and their families for a wonderful breakfast
on Easter Sunday. It was a great time -
good food and a great
time for fellowship
to catch up with some folks that we don’t see every Sunday due to different service times that we attend.
Even though I heard it was a bit of a challenge since it was the first time this group hosted the event, you would not have known it! KUDOS and, again, many thanks!

We will continue fellowship time between services on Sunday mornings but if you want treats with your coffee, don’t forget to sign up. The signup sheet is on the table in the narthex or call Lyn Hayes to let her know you will bring treats or with any questions. (847)566-2537.

Any ideas for fellowship events this summer? Let Pastor Jenna or Anita know and they will put you in touch with those on the Parish Life/Service Team. We are also looking for people who would be willing to organize or host an event or get together. Last summer a group of us met each week at the “free” Concerts in the Park and had a good time. Maybe we can have some more fun together!

STEWARDSHIP - GOD'S WORK OUR HANDS, AND HEARTS and LIVES AS DISCIPLES OF CHRIST JESUS

Alas, how great is it that we can believe without having seen?

As we just passed through the season of Lent, a time of deep reflection and for many of us consideration of ourselves and maybe our shortfallings, we do still have much to be thankful for knowing that God will be with us always and we can openly believe and know that He is every day by our sides! We do see many signs now as spring is blooming. Who else but God could have created everything that we can see bursting forth?

We must continue to "Examine yourselves, to see whether you are living in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?.. 2Corinthians 13:5

As members of the faithful family at St. Andrew, we must continue to take care of all that we have been given and fulfill our "job" as Jesus' disciples remembering that Jesus did die for us and rose again so that we could live here on earth to continue his work and then have eternal life with Him some day. Every one of us has, as God's children, been directed to do God's work, to care for the earth, each other and to spread God's good news.

Sometimes it is easy to take our faith for granted and not consider who is "for us" amongst our own busyness and daily struggles. Then we must continue to listen and believe. Truly none of us are perfect but we are given opportunities, new every day, to live our lives to become more like Him, our heavenly Father. Why else would He have sacrificed his Son for us? God believes in us - He will continue to help us through our struggles so we can love and care for each other.

I would like to share a story written by Buck Storm and published in my daily devotions, Walking in Grace:

"My daughter and boats don't get along.

I was proud of her when she handled the passage from Kauai to the smaller Hawaiian island of Ni'ihau. But when the trip back got rough, I could see her struggling.

The captain's voice came through the speakers, 'It's getting choppy out here, folks. A little advice - stay on deck and keep your eyes on the horizon.'

I sighed as a dozen lime green tourists ignored this good advice and headed below to find a bench to lie on.

'What should I do?', my daughter asked.

I put my arms around her. 'Exactly what the captain said. Also, put your fingers in your ears.'

'Will that help me feel better?'

'Trust me.'

She did-just in time to block out the inevitable and horrible sounds coming from the bunch inside.

Are you like me? Ridden a squall or two in this life? And we know what to do-listen to the Captain. It's easy for me to shake my head at clueless tourists who didn't listen to the captain, yet how many times have I ignored my Captain's voice and found myself miserable and suffering on some self-imposed bunk?

My daughter made it back to port in fine shape. As for me, I came away with a nice, heavenly reminder. I'll be keeping my face to the wind and my eyes on the horizon. And if I put my fingers in my ears, it'll only be after the Captain speaks."

At evening to myself I say,

My soul, where hast thou glean'd to-day,

Thy labours how bestow'd?

What hast thou rightly said or done?

What grace attain'd, or knowledge won,

In following after God?

-Prayer from Lincoln's Devotional

I wasn't raised in the Lutheran church, nor was I baptized as an infant, so I never had to go through Confirmation. I remember being fascinated with the stories my college classmates shared about the trials and tribulations of their Confirmation classes. Many of them had awful experiences. The materials were dull, the pastor or lay leader didn't seem all that interested in being there, and it felt an awful lot like school but without some of the fun social aspects.

My goal, as the one who prepares and teaches our Confirmation classes, has always been to give our kids something to hold onto when life is hard. To help them learn more about why the church does what it does and why it actually does matter for their lives. Above all, I stress again and again that God loves them. Our tradition teaches us that we have been saved by grace through faith apart from works—we can do nothing to earn God's love and we can do nothing to lose God's love. In a world that teaches us the exact opposite, we learn just how wild and not boring God's ways are.

I really hope you will be with us on May 28 when our 3 Confirmands affirm their baptisms. I hope that you will see them not as the future of our church, but as the present of our church. I hope that you will continue to encourage them, pray for them, and get to know them as your sisters and brothers in Christ. I hope that you can bear witness to the Spirit working in them and through them, even when the language they speak seems strange or incomprehensible. In all of these things, we ask the Lord to help and guide us as we say, "Yes Lord!"

Peace,
Pr Jenna

"Do everything for the glory of God."
1 Corinthians 10:31

Here I Am Lord...

Where do you see God, viewing a sunrise, seeing a babies tiny fingers, maybe viewing the night sky?
When do you see God, early in the morning, sitting quietly in a church pew, maybe when the wind ruffles the leaves or in the gifts He has given you.

Our church provides us the opportunity to see God within our lives and our community, with fellowship, and a safe-haven for our worship. Saint Andrew is not just a building or an institution, it is a home where we come together to celebrate God with the fellowship of each other.

As the belief in God is an important commitment to ourself, family and community, it is not free. It does take work and maintenance. There is very little that is free so we need to put a commitment into what is dear to us, and yes, that includes our church.

Saint Andrew was born out of volunteers to bring this church into our community. We are the church. We have always needed, and continue to need, help in so many ways to carry on our mission of "Sharing Christ".

Saint Andrew has a lot of opportunities for you to be an active helper in maintaining the church and it's mission. We have a 100 opportunities, small and large. We have committees that need guidance, ministries that need your ability and musical opportunities to share your talents.

When you hear God calling please answer him.
"Here I am Lord, Is it I Lord".....
I will go, Lord, if you lead me...
I will hold your people in my heart.

Quarterly Devotionals:

Did you know that St. Andrews offers two different quarterly devotionals throughout the year? We have large print and regular sized copies of "Christ In Our Home" and "Word in Season" available at the church. There's still the month of March left in these copies--pick one up next time you're here! You'll find them on the Welcome Table in the Narthex.

St. Andrew Lutheran
A little church with a BIG mission

Who Cares Anyway?

St. Andrew Cares Fund is in Need!

St. Andrew Cares is a special assistance fund administered by Pastor Jenna and used to help people in need.

Many times during a month individuals and families come to our church with real needs.

Right now this fund is low and in need of donations. If you would like to make a contribution to this fund, you may give it to Pastor Jenna or Anita, send it to the church office, or place it in the Sunday morning offering plate.

Giving a gas card or a gift certificate from a grocery store is also a great way to help meet the needs of those who come to the church seeking help.

Thank you for your generosity!

Nursery Support:

Please help us to keep the nursery tidied! Right now there is no one responsible for picking things up each week, and we'd appreciate your help in keeping that space tidied and cleaned up.

QUILTERS CROSSING

Greetings and continued blessings to all!

As of April 20, the quilters have completed 381 quilts toward our goal for this year of 400!! Only 19 to go before Mother's Day; WE WILL MAKE AND EXCEED OUR GOAL!! Thank you to all who support us and who work on this ministry! As has become tradition at St. Andrew, Mother's Day is the day that we put the quilts on display in the sanctuary for all to see. The quilts will then be boxed up to take to Lutheran World Relief. They will then be shipped all over the world to help ease the pain and misery of people caught in natural disasters or war, those in refugee camps, in hospitals and in areas of unbelievable poverty. There is an ever increasing need and call for these LWR quilts!

The ultimate purpose of a homemade quilt is to provide warmth, an essential need for people in every climate. In addition to being a cozy clean new bed cover, it can be: a baby carrier tied around a mother's back, a market display spread on the ground and piled with vegetables, a sack for transporting those goods to market, a sunshade, a shawl and, most importantly, a constant reminder that someone far away cares a lot! LWR's mission is: Affirming God's love for all people. They work with Lutherans and partners around the world to help end poverty, injustice and human suffering.

After Mother's Day the quilters will continue and start again toward another goal. They will also be working on the Baby Care Kits that are assembled and sent to help mothers care for their infants and small children. Please watch for further information in the weekly announcements on what is needed by our group. Your support and prayers are needed and appreciated. With spring upon us and summer months coming, many items can be found at garage and yard sales including blankets, sheets and men's large or larger t-shirts. These things just need to be clean and in good condition. The t-shirts are used to make baby diapers-who knew?

We have a steady group of dedicated workers but are always open to welcome more "helping hands and hearts"! For more information or with questions, please contact Judy Parriott (847) 986-4465.

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.
