From Pastor Jenna Pulkowski Pastor's Pen

[Jesus said], "Heaven and earth may pass away, but my words will not pass away." ~Matthew 24:35 NRSVue

Have you ever wondered when the Bible was first translated into a language other than Hebrew, Greek, or Latin?

When we gathered for our first Confirmation gathering this school year, we answered that question! It all goes back to the Protestant Reformation and Martin Luther's role in the Reformation. A surprising number of important things happened in the 1500s that still impact us today, especially when it comes to how we engage with scripture.

Prior to what we now call the Reformation, the Bible wasn't easily accessible to people. It was written in Latin—aka the Vulgate Bible—which was the language of the church for many centuries. Only those with money could afford to educate their children, let alone provide Latin tutors, which further limited who could even read scripture.

Luther ended up having to hide out at Wartburg Castle, where he spent part of his time translating the Greek New Testament into German. For the first time since the original Hebrew and Greek scriptures, the Bible was written in a language that people spoke in their every day lives.

But what good was it to have a Bible in German if people didn't know how to read it? To combat the low literacy rates, Luther and the other Reformers emphasized the importance of Sunday school, which was actually school—people were taught how to read and write so that they could read scripture for themselves.

2024 St. Andrew Pledges

Please help St. Andrews plan for our ministries for 2024 by making a financial pledge as soon as the pledge packet and information are available.

Your pledges allow us to build the 2024 budget that supports all the activities of the church.

Look for information in your mail!

As always, thank you for your support. We can not do it without you.

Christmas Program

Christmas Program (Dec 17): Mark your calendars and join us for a combined worship service at 9:30 am on Sunday, December 17th for our annual Sunday School Christmas Program.

STEWARDSHIP –

God's Work/Our Hands, Hearts and Lives / LET US LIVE GENEROUSLY

As a faithful and faith-filled congregation, St. Andrew must continue to move forward. Let us look to the next 10, 20, 30 or 40+ years!

Pastor Jenna and our church leaders have pledged to help make our church a place where all will feel welcome, a place for families, a place where we can all understand what it means to be a good steward and share the blessings that we have been given.

At times you may feel that you are unworthy, not good enough, not “up to the task” or that you may make mistakes; think about this - to be good stewards God doesn't require us to be successful, perfect or better than everyone else, only to be “faithful”. If we believe, we can ask God to allow our lives to be a reflection of who he wants us to be, so if there is a need, we'll find a way to help. We will find a way to be generous!

The last couple months I shared in my articles the definition of generosity and how we can live generously no matter what stage of our lives we are in. The theme of our Fall Pledge Campaign is “Generosity”. Continue to watch for more information, we may even put a “little twist “ on this theme.

When we are talking about stewardship and generosity, we are talking about caring for and sharing all God has entrusted to us including our very lives, our very selves. As we continue to grow in our faith, we continue from youth to our life's end here in our earthly home. We keep learning with the help of the community around us to run in the path of God's commands. We will go through many stages in our lives. We will make mistakes, but again, we must keep moving forward. As God's stewards & disciples of Jesus, we are called “to be” - to be noble and generous in spirit, generous with our time, talents and resources. Being generous is our response to the character of God, like the fruit in the orchard.

“...whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.” - Phillipians 4: 8-9

Continue, dear friends, to watch and listen for more information & opportunities to find your place at St. Andrew and to “hear” where your “generous heart” is leading you. We hope to have our Pledge/Commitment Sunday on November 19th - we will celebrate our generosity and each other!

Lastly, I would like to share a story written by Kim Taylor Henry and published in the devotional “Walking in Grace 2023”

“There were twelve jumps in the course. They weren't in a neat row, one after the other, but set out with twists and turns in an order I wouldn't be able to remember no matter how many times I tried, let alone stay on the horse jumping over them.

I was watching my adult daughter, Rachel, in her jumper riding competition. If she were to go off course, miss a jump, jump the wrong one, or fall off, she would be out of the competition, period. No do-overs. No second chances.

I'm happy to say that my daughter stayed on course and on her horse. (In fact, she won Grand Champion.) Others were not so fortunate. Out of sixteen, two went off course and one fell off. All three were out.

It set me to thinking how gracious our God is. My life is full of twists, turns, and jumps of sorts. I always try to follow God and stay on the path He has set before me. But I do go off course. I'm not consistently loving, patient, self-controlled, or kind. I fall down in my efforts to be the person I want to be for God. But I am not out. I thank God that He does allow do-overs. When I make mistakes, I can turn to Him. He will forgive me and gently set me back on the right path.

I will never win Grand Champion in my life's course. But thankfully, God will let me continue to ride. “

Thank You, God, that with You there are do-overs. Thank You for Your grace, Your mercy, and Your loving kindness which pick me up when I stumble or fall and set me back on course. -Amen.

QUILTERS CROSSING

Thank you to all who continue to support our ministry. Last month, we shared our somewhat disappointment that we were short on items to assemble our Baby Care Kits. Well, GOOD NEWS!

Our Confirmation students have stepped up to help! As their November service project, they are going to be collecting needed items - men's large or larger cotton t-shirts used to make diapers, footless sleepers or pajamas (preferable but if they have feet, they can be adjusted to be used), jackets or sweaters (hooded are great but hoodless are also good), little hats, t-shirts & socks (all baby clothes size 6-24 months). Also, they will continue to collect bar soap (Dove or Ivory). They may then help us to assemble what "kits" we can.

On Thursday morning, October 19th before we "went to work", many of us attended the funeral service for Gisela Honigmann, a long-time member of St. Andrew and avid and beloved quilter. She spent countless hours before she had to "step back" using her gifts and talents with the quilters as well as giving us some of the very "tools" we continue to use on a weekly basis. Thank you, Gisela!!

As our Lord guides us in our work, we continue to sort & cut material, sew tops, assemble the quilts with tops, filler and backs, sew them together and finish off by "tying it all together"! It does take many hands but we do have fun. We take time once a month to follow our work by a time of fellowship and a "brown bag" lunch. YOU ARE WELCOME! Join us! If you have questions, please call Judy Parriott (847)986-4465 or catch any of us on Sunday morning. We are still collecting sheets (queen or king flat are preferable but any can be used as long as they are clean and stain-free) or large pieces of material.

Come and check us out in the church basement on Thursdays from 9-12 and on the 5th Saturday of a month when they occur. You don't have to make a "lifetime" commitment! We are truly blessed to be able to do a small part in bringing comfort to others and having fun in the process!

Children's Message: Wonderful for ALL

The Childrens' Message, included in the service, is certainly prepared for our young children but the children's message is for the grown-ups, too.

Several adults, especially our older members, tell us that the children's message deeply engages them and prepares them for the extended message to come as well as to see the children's smiles and participation.

In our baptisms, our families and churches promise to put the word of God into the hands of the baptized. It's why we give all newly baptized people—mostly infants and young children—a Bible as a gift from our faith community. It's also why we are committed to helping children grow in their knowledge of God's word and to pair that growth with an age-appropriate Bible, and why we like to do it on Reformation Sunday. We can fulfill our baptismal promises, and to remember the ancestors of the faith who helped us to do so.

Peace,
Pr Jenna

Confirmation Service Project

Our 7th & 8th grade Confirmation students have partnered with SALC's Quilting Ministry to collect items for Lutheran World Relief's Baby Care Kits. Our goal is to collect enough supplies to put together 25 kits during the month of November. Flyers with requested items are in the narthex at church, along with a bin to collect donated items. The students are also sharing information through St. Andrew's Facebook page and YouTube channel. We hope you will help us by donating items for the kits and sharing the social media links. Please see Pr Jenna with questions!

In Loving Memory

In Loving Memory of Donna Nims

I write to share with you the passing of Donna Nims. God has quietly called her home.

We hold her husband, Eugene, and her sons Terry and Greg and their families in our prayers as they mourn the loss of their wife and mother.

Gracious God, we thank you for the long and full life of your beloved child, Donna, and for giving her to us to know and to love.

In Loving Memory of Joslynn Anderson

We remember Joslynn Anderson, who passed away September 8, and her family in our prayers. While it had been a number of years since Joslynn had been able to connect with the church in person, her and her husband Don raised their 5 children at St. Andrew Lutheran. She was a caring and compassionate person who deeply valued her faith, which she shared through her career as a Registered Nurse and later through volunteering with hospice care. For more information about her visitation and service on December 22 in Paddock Lake, WI, contact Pastor Jenna.

St. Andrew Cares is a special assistance fund administered by Pastor Jenna and used to help people in need.

Many times during a month individuals and families come to our church with real needs.

Right now this fund is low and in need of donations. If you would like to make a contribution to this fund, you may give it to Pastor Jenna or Anita, send it to the church office, or place it in the Sunday morning offering plate.

PRAYER VENTURES

November 2023

- 1 American Indian Heritage Month Give thanks for our Indigenous neighbors and siblings in Christ, whose diverse gifts, traditions and wisdom help shape and enrich society and the church. Pray for Indigenous ministries and faith communities in the ELCA and the work of ELCA Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations, and ask God to guide and further the work of our church and society to build better, right and just relationships with Indigenous peoples.
- 2 Pray for our neighbors who have experienced great losses and turmoil as a result of the earthquake in Morocco and the unprecedented flooding in Libya, that they will find hope, comfort, relief, resources and assistance for the difficult recoveries ahead.
- 3 “I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people” (Jeremiah 31:33). The new covenant that God made with us long ago permeates every aspect of our life and can’t be broken or voided, because its foundation is God’s enduring grace. Give praise and thanks to God!
- 4 Remember in prayer those who have been impacted by recent tropical storms and hurricanes, that they might find relief, assistance and hope in the support provided by neighbors, faith communities, synods and relief agencies, including Lutheran Disaster Response. Ask God to strengthen our resilience and wisdom to meet the mounting challenges of natural disasters and climate change.
- 5 Pray that we will take to heart and respond to the same instructions Jesus gave to his disciples: to care for our neighbors who suffer poverty, hunger and illness and to bless those who commit their lives to caring for others, pursuing justice and making peace.
- 6 Pray for outdoor ministry professionals, staff and board members as they gather for the Lutheran Outdoor Ministry conference in Lake Geneva, Wis. Ask God to bless their time together for worship, renewal, networking and enhancing their skills.
- 7 Election Day Ask the Spirit to help us exercise concern for our neighbor, the well-being of communities, and racial, gender and economic justice as we discern whom to elect as our leaders and public servants. Give thanks for ELCAvotes, an initiative to help us citizens and people of faith understand our role in promoting dignity and respect for all.
- 8 Remember in prayer foster families and programs that provide transitional and long-term homes and care for infants, children and youth. Ask the Spirit to inspire people to consider becoming foster parents, and give thanks for foster care services provided by member organizations of Lutheran Services in America.
- 9 Pray for the leaders of our church as they gather for the ELCA Church Council, that the Spirit will guide their deliberations and decisions to further our mission of spreading the good news of Jesus Christ, serving our neighbors and growing the church.
- 10 Give thanks and praise to God, creator of diverse, abundant creatures in the seas and oceans that feed the hungry, inspire awe, reveal secrets that lead to medical discoveries and keep aquatic ecosystems healthy and thriving.
- 11 Veterans Day Remember and give thanks for those who have served our country in times of peace and conflict — here and around the world. Pray that they will never be forgotten or taken for granted.
- 12 We all want to know what the kingdom of heaven is like and when Jesus will come again. Express your trust that Jesus Christ has made a place for us in the kingdom of God, and pray that the Spirit will focus us on doing God’s work in the world now, as we look forward with gratitude to life eternal.
- 13 Give thanks for ELCA Campus Ministry and the Lutheran Campus Ministry Network (LuMin), which bear witness to God’s grace through worship, study, fellowship and service with students, faculty, staff and others at 230 college and university campuses across the country.
- 14 Pray for youth and family ministry leaders in our congregations, and promise to express appreciation, support and encouragement for their work of faith formation and caring for young people and their parents.

- 15 Give thanks to God for the comfort of knowing that we, and those who have gone before us, will one day be gathered together in the kingdom of God — forever.
- 16 “O God, to you I cry in pain when sickness makes me weak, when mind and body out of tune bring fears I cannot speak” (ACS 1021). We are never alone in times of distress. Praise God for being attentive to us through caring neighbors and siblings in Christ, especially when we find it difficult to express our infirmities and suffering.
- 17 Pray for the 800-plus rostered ministers who have responded to God’s call to provide specialized pastoral care in ministries across the ELCA and in our communities, including hospice, counseling, corrections, long-term care, and police and fire chaplaincy.
- 18 Thank God for the ELCA’s special relationship with The Episcopal Church, a full communion partner since 1999. Pray for the church, its members and its leaders, that together we will find strength and resources for the work of sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor.
- 19 Thank God for the example of Jesus Christ, who guides our understanding of generosity, for the sake of the world and our neighbors at the margins of society.
- 20 Pray for the success of Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service’s Preferred Refugee Employer Program, which helps employers offer support and services of particular benefit to the refugees in their communities.
- 21 Pray for youth, parents, youth leaders and congregations registering for the 2024 ELCA Youth Gathering. Ask the Spirit to stir their enthusiasm, guide their preparation for their experience in New Orleans, and help those who are discerning whether to participate.
- 22 Pray that our acts of generosity will come from a place of gratefulness to God and concern for our neighbor and will “produce thanksgiving to God through us” (2 Corinthians 9:11).
- 23 Thanksgiving Day “We lift our voices, we lift our hands, we lift our lives up to you: we are an offering, we are an offering” (ELW 692). Pray that we will see every aspect of our life as an offering for the sake of our neighbor and the well-being of the world — an expression of thanksgiving for the blessings and resources that God has generously given to us.
- 24 Native American Heritage Day Praise God for the rich and diverse legacies of Native American neighbors and siblings in Christ. Give thanks for the continuing influence of Indigenous cultures, traditions, spirituality, arts and concepts of community.
- 25 Remember in prayer neighbors and siblings in Christ who are without safety, shelter, food or basic social services. Promise to be tireless, creative and respectful in providing immediate and long-term care for those who are homeless, and in boldly advocating for just laws that yield appropriate and truly affordable housing.
- 26 Pray that our concern, empathy and service for the well-being of our neighbors in need will be bold and boundless, especially when we are pressured to serve only select groups.
- 27 Remember in prayer pastors and their families, and pray that we will demonstrate our concern for their well-being and renewal through ongoing encouragement, support, affirmation and guidance.
- 28 Pray that our daily lives will reflect joy and thanksgiving to God, our maker and the rock of our salvation.
- 29 The suffering and devastation mount with every day the Russia-Ukraine War continues. Pray for an end to the war, and that our allies will remain steadfast in valuing and pursuing peace, justice and recovery for Ukraine.
- 30 Andrew, the Apostle Andrew, a humble fisherman, was the first person to respond to Jesus’ invitation to set everything aside and follow him. Pray that we too will answer the call to learn, to serve and to spread the gospel with our unique gifts.
