Until Pastor Jenna Pulkowski returns from maternity leave we will have alternate articles of thought and praise.

What do we really own?

'Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there; the Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.'

--Job:1:21

There's the joke about the nosy neighbor attending a rich woman's funeral. Peering into the coffin with a friend, he asked, "How much money did she leave?" The friend smiled and replied, "All of it, of course!"

As Job laments, we come into the world naked and leave the same way. We may be dressed in our best clothing on our way out, but we take it to the grave, not the afterlife.

The joke and Job reveal a basic concept of stewardship: We don't really own anything. We may take possession of it for a period of time, but we eventually leave it for others.

Yet we spend so much of our energy and life accumulating more and more – as if we were going to have it forever, as we were going to live forever. The danger is that absorbed with accumulating wealth, we shortchange the most valuable treasures – loving the Lord our God with all our being and loving our neighbors as ourselves.

That's why the Bible consistently warns us about wealth. Jesus repeatedly points out the pitfalls. Money and possessions can turn us inward, stunting our growth and preventing us from being the people God created us to be.

Generosity is the preventative cure for this malady. The Bible counsels that tithing – giving away 10 percent of our income – is a good benchmark for faithful giving (although on several occasions Jesus told his disciples to give away ALL their possessions).

Giving 10 percent, or any amount substantial enough to be sacrificial, is a declaration that you are free from the power that money might have over you. Because however much money you can accumulate in life, you will be like the rich woman in the joke: You will leave it all.

Quilters' Crossing

Week by week, the joyful quilters continue their work, completing beautiful quilts for Lutheran World Relief. We have many VERY DEDICATED women who continue to come week after week, relentlessly! As a part of this group, I feel it is a true blessing to be able to do this work! We continue to accept donations of fabric and gently used sheets that we use for the backs of these quilts. If you donate, you will truly see the fruits of your generosity next spring when they are on display to be blessed, and then shipped out to those in need.

Just a few weeks ago, I had the pleasure of getting to know two of our newer quilters, Lorrie and Khris H, during a Thursday session. Once a month we gather for lunch after our work, and we had/ have great conversations. I got to know Lorrie better by listening to her tell of some of her history and things about her family; she recently joined our group after seeing our sign. She now is a regular and is a wonderful quilt sewer; she is even taking the project home with her to work between Thursday sessions. THANK YOU, LORRIE! Also, Khris, who is a member of St. Andrew but I had not had the pleasure of getting to know before, came downstairs to ask questions about the quilt top process and let me know that she would be donating more thread and that she now will be sewing tops for us! THANK YOU, KHRIS! She recently got a new machine to better enable her to help us!

All of us ladies, are truly thankful and blessed! We do have several fellows who also are "part" of the group by helping with our packing and shipping when needed. If anyone would like to join us or has any questions, please contact the church office or talk to me, Judy Parriott, or Debbie Jacobson on Sunday morning. We will continue to do our work as long as we are able, with the support of our brothers and sisters at St. Andrew!

Hugs and many Blessings to you!

Quilters Complete Baby Kits for LWR

During the summer the St. Andrew Quilters switch from making quilts to making baby kits. The Quilters have put together almost 89 'Baby Kits' and they have been boxed, labeled and taken down to Elgin to a collection site.

These baby kits will be added to other donations of baby kits and quilts made by many other congregations in our area and shipped to the East coast. Once they arrive, they will be repackaged for world-wide distribution by the LWR (Lutheran World Relief). LWR helps communities, living in extreme poverty, with disaster relief and recovery. I believe there are times, in world news stories that you will see quilts and baby kits being used in pictures of refugee camps. God's plan our

Flowers for the Altar

If you would like to continue our tradition of sponsoring flowers for the altar, please either email the date and information to Anita or sign up on the flower calendar outside of Pastor's office. The cost is $20. Sponsors for the eternal candle are $20 for the month. There are still openings in the next couple of months. Let's continue to beautify and light our church with memories and remembrances and honors!!

Stay Connected by Being Connected

If you are feeling the loss of connection and finding it hard to rejoice and give thanks for our community—please, please reach out to us. Call the church or any of the many wonderful members of St. Andrew. Let us know how we can help you be more connected and to feel more connected. There are no good choices right now, just less bad ones, and the Safety Team at St. Andrew is working hard and praying harder as we care for the wellbeing of the congregation.

"We become what we love and who we love shapes what we become."

-St. Clare of Assisi

STEWARDSHIP - WE ARE "TOGETHER FOR JOY"

"O sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things... Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth: break forth into joyous song and sing praises....." Psalm 98

We here at St. Andrew have good reason to be ever thankful and joyful! Pastor Jenna, our church leaders and you have pledged to make St. Andrew a place where "all are welcome, fed and nourished in the name of Jesus Christ". We've been through changes but continue to move forward. Our fall programs have now started back up and things are getting more exciting. Over the past several weeks you have heard from a few of your "family" members what brought them to St. Andrew and what life here at St. Andrew means to them. God calls all of us to be faithful. If we believe, we can ask God to allow our lives to be a reflection of who he wants us to be; that "light" will then be seen by others. We are all here to be servants, as Jesus has taught us. Thank you to all who have taken seriously your part in our St. Andrew family!

Most of you received an "electronic" version of Pledge materials this year and we are moving ahead to accept the pledges for 2025. If you have not had a chance to complete your commitment or still need a "hard" copy, they are available at church in the Welcome Center in the narthex or can be sent to you if you contact the church office or ask me if you see me in church. The finance team and church council need the response from all of us as they continue to put together the budget for 2025. Even though Pledge Sunday was 10/27, IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO MAKE YOUR COMMITMENT!

Please continue to pray -what is YOUR PART in the life of St. Andrew? There are many, many opportunities for you to support the ministries of our church. Whether you are interested in a one time project, want to participate in one of our small group ministries, or you want to support, encourage and help grow our Faith Formation, Service, Finance or Operations ministry teams, there is a place for you.

A story to close written by Rick Hamlin and published in 2024 Daily Devotions "Walking in Grace"

"It kind of surprised me when I noticed it: I tend to stare down at the ground when I walk. Working at home, I'd go out for a stroll, just to break up the day, and for much of that time I'd stare at the sidewalk. Even in the park, I'd be looking at the path and the flowers that border it or the twigs crunching under my footsteps. 'Look up, Rick' I'd tell myself. 'Notice that pine tree. Take in the view of the river. Isn't it marvelous? See the light on the hills. Watch the birds take wing and float on the breeze'. And then a squirrel would dart along the path, and I'd watch it scurry into the leaves, searching for food, pausing to come up and check me out, as though I might offer him a peanut.

The long view and the short view. Aren't they both manifestations of the Creator's goodness? Yes, that hawk in the sky might take my breath away as does the sunlight on the palisades beyond, but then, I see the most curious patterns on a path. The fallen leaves, stuck to the ground, can take on shapes that mirror what's in the heavens.

'God is in the details' is an old truism. I can feel a huge presence filling me up as I stare at a panoramic view of the sun setting over the Hudson River, the clouds rimmed with light. And then I'll look down and discover a ladybug sitting on a leaf and imagine God noticing it, just as God never stops watching out for me."

Each day is new - open my eyes, Lord, to the wonders of your creation. Help me to listen and pay attention to your voice.

Each of you should use whatever gifts you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. -1Peter 4:10. AMEN

Give thanks for the work of Federal Chaplaincy Ministries of the ELCA and of congregations with ministries serving veterans and their families.

- 13 Remember in prayer our ministries in seven countries in the Asia-Pacific region. Pray for ELCA Global Mission personnel, including the missionaries, teachers, International Women Leaders and Horizon seminary interns working alongside companion churches to spread the gospel, grow the church and respond to community needs.

- 16 Ask God to help us welcome and treat immigrants, refugees and asylum-seekers with respect and compassion, accompanying them through the complex process of rebuilding their lives in our country.
- 17 Jesus warned that being his disciple is never easy or safe, but we are never alone or ill-equipped for doing God's work in the world — we are accompanied by the Spirit and our siblings in Christ. Praise God!
- 18 Give thanks for those who work in hospice care and attend to the comfort and quality of life of people as they approach the end of life, and who provide emotional and spiritual support for their families.

- 21 There are approximately 369,000 infants, children and youth in foster care in our country. Pray that foster families will provide them with stability, love, support and encouragement so that they thrive. Give thanks for foster parents and pray for the Spirit to equip them with wisdom, empathy, strength and skills for parenting.
- 22 "Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another" (Hebrews 10:24-25). Pray that we — individually and as communities of faith — will be catalysts for love, kindness and inspiration in the church, our society and the world.
- 23 Remember in prayer our ministries in nine countries in the Latin America and Caribbean regions. Pray for ELCA Global Mission personnel, including the missionaries, teachers, International Women Leaders and Young Adults in Global Mission working alongside global companions to spread the gospel, strengthen and grow the church, and respond to community needs.

- 25 Give thanks for the people and experiences that break into our daily routines, interjecting joy and laughter.
- 26 Ask God to make us enthusiastic witnesses to our faith through words, kindness, love for our neighbors in need and commitment to justice and peace. Pray that we will be mindful of opportunities to invite others to become followers of Jesus Christ and to welcome them into our communities of faith.
- 27 Praise God for gathering our collective gifts and resources through ELCA World Hunger and Lutheran Disaster Response to respond to the needs of our neighbor and end hunger and poverty.
- 28 Day of Thanksgiving Give thanks today — and every day — for what God provides to strengthen and sustain us and for those who work to feed the world, including farmers, agricultural workers, ranchers, commercial fishermen, food pantry staff and administrators of hunger relief programs such as ELCA World Hunger.
- 29 Native American Heritage Day "Let us remember the Indigenous peoples and tribal nations who were the first to love, pray, grow, celebrate, cry, drum, dance and sing upon these lands" (land acknowledgment from the 2022 Churchwide Assembly). Give thanks for the cultures, values, accomplishments and spirituality of Native Americans that continue to shape our nation and church. Pray that we will be persistent and sincere in learning more about Indigenous peoples and tribal nations and in working together to correct inaccuracies and injustices of history.
- 30 Andrew, the Apostle Andrew was the first of the 12 disciples to drop what he was doing and accept Jesus' invitation to follow him. Ask the Spirit to stir our faith and courage to respond to the call to do God's work in the world, wherever it takes us and whatever it requires of us.
