

Encounter

From Pastor Jenna Pulkowski Pastor's Pen

"...My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God
my Savior..."
(Luke 1:46a-47)

When the Worship & Music team met this past August to work on Advent and Christmas, we quickly settled on once again using A Sanctified Art theme. W&M was drawn to the question posed by the theme: "How Does a Weary World Rejoice?", which itself arose from "O Holy Night"—"a thrill of hope, a weary world rejoices".

But...how do we rejoice when we are just so tired? Tired of the daily grind, tired of chasing a goal that's ever-changing, tired of violence and war and politics, tired of being tired! Who has energy to rejoice when all that we're left with is cobwebs?

In answer to their own question, A Sanctified Art's creative team writes, "Joy is often a companion to many other emotions. We can feel joy in addition to feeling many other things at once: grief, anticipation, anxiety, excitement, disappointment, exhaustion. Perhaps many of us live with the myth that joy is not something we deserve—or that it is wholly out of reach. But our joy is rooted in the truth that we belong to God. Can you tether yourself to that deep truth? You deserve to feel joy—fully. The world needs your joy, even if you are weary. Our joy is better when it is shared."

Each week in worship, we come together to share our grief, anxiety, excitement, and joy, and we make space for all those things that we feel so strongly this time of year. "We will seek a 'thrill of hope' in our hurting world. We will welcome joy—even and especially if, like the prophet Isaiah, we cry out for comfort (Isaiah 40:1). In this weary world, may we find many ways to rejoice."

2024 St. Andrew Pledges

Your pledges allow us to build the 2024 budget that supports all the activities of the church.

As always, thank you for your support. We cannot do it without you.

STEWARDSHIP –

Stewardship is ALL ABOUT LOVE AND GENEROSITY - T!!
Our Time, Talents and Treasures

“Now thank we all our God with hearts and hands and voices.....”

Thanks be to God and to all of you who have prayed and taken seriously your part in our St. Andrew family of faith. Your leaders have set a goal to have at least 70 pledges/financial commitments from the congregation to help faithfully plan the budget for 2024 - we are about half way to that goal. If you have not had a chance to fill out and return your pledge card, it is not too late. Please do so as soon as you can. If you have not received one, you can pick one up at church or call the office and one can be mailed to you.

As we move forward with our budget planning, we are asking that you also continue to think about what generosity means to you. I am sure you all have a story or two or a memory of you or someone close to you who has been “generous” or maybe of how you have received generosity from someone else. Pastor Jenna shared a story that sticks in her mind from when she was a child and her and her family were travelling in France, needed help and were taken in by a family to offer their assistance - total strangers and they received the help they needed and those strangers wanted nothing in return!

When I was growing up, I lived with my parents and four siblings. We didn't have much - my Dad was an auto repair mechanic and brought home about $100 a week - I never felt, though, that we didn't have enough and my Mom & Dad were always welcoming others to join us for meals and to help whenever we could. My Dad's bosses' grandsons moved away from their home in Galesburg to live with grandpa and it seems like they were always at our house. I had 3 extra young men as brothers; and they were growing boys. My Mom would send me to the local store to buy 50 cents worth of lunch meat and there was enough to go around! My Mom was a great cook as well and did know how to stretch what ingredients she had on hand to make wonderful meals! I have wonderful memories as well of my Dad peeling oranges in the evening for us to share as we watched TV or did our homework.

My Mom also taught me how to share not only food & shelter with others, but I remember she once loaned a dress and her wedding ring to a brother of one of my friends and his fiancée so they could go to the courthouse and get married without feeling ashamed because they couldn't afford to buy these things. We also had a wonderful celebration after the ceremony. When I was entering high school, I received two beautiful pantsuits (jackets, slacks, skirts and matching shells) for Christmas so I wouldn't have to just wear hand-me-downs from a neighbor girl or my brothers and feel out of place. I later found out they came from a fancy boutique in town (Tot to Teens); what did Mom have to give up to buy me those things? I could go on and on - what are your stories?

Thank you to Tia Kowalewski for volunteering to lead an Adult Bible study for good discussion and to help us consider what the Bible tells us about being generous. The plan of the Council, Pastor Jenna and our leaders is to continue throughout the coming year and beyond to build a longterm understanding of stewardship, generosity and the mission of St. Andrew and the connection for each of us to support this mission!

THANK YOU TO ALL for your prayers and your commitment to allow your lives to be a reflection of who God wants us to be and to follow the path where He is leading us!

See you in church!

QUILTERS CROSSING

Lord remind me to look beyond the noise and worries that crowd my heart and help me to focus on YOU and those you've given me to love.....

And who are those?

As we continue our ministry to support those close around us and those we can love and support who are far away and even strangers, although God's beloved children, we want to sincerely thank our young folks who helped us collect many items for our Baby Care Kits. Soon we will work on starting to assemble them and we will invite the kids to help in that part of the project as well!

We are now approaching Christmas season and as a part of that time we will be holding a Craft Show and Quilt Raffle on December 10th and 17th. You will have the opportunity to "win" one of our special quilts to keep for yourself or give as a gift to someone you love. We will have a variety of craft items for sale as well. All funds we receive will go toward the repair and servicing of our sewing machines so we can continue our work. We have also applied for Thrivent matching funds to help us with the things we need but are still thankful for all the donations we receive. If any of you "crafty" folks have any items for our craft table/sale, we would welcome your donations! It could even be "free advertising" for you and could help you make some additional sales for yourself.

Our sign continues to draw new quilters to our group - we welcome Janet who saw the sign passing by and came to check us out. We asked if it was what she was looking for in a sewing circle; she responded, "yes, and more". She even got to help us celebrate our dear Lorraine for her 94th birthday. Lorraine's son brought us a "feast" for lunch that day. We do have a good time!

Remember YOU are also welcome. Come and check us out on Thursdays from 9-12 and on the 5th Saturday of a month when they occur. We are also still truly grateful for the many folks who help us by working and sewing from home. Please call Judy Parriott (847) 986-4465 with questions or catch any of us on Sunday mornings. We will tell you what a rewarding feeling it gives to be a part of this group.

Lyn Hayes

We continue to be truly blessed!

Women's Fellowship

Women's Fellowship will be returning for a few traditional events this winter. We hope that you will be able to join us. Please reach out to Barb Binversie if you have any questions. Merry Christmas, Everyone!

Christmas Caroling - we will visit a few of our "senior" members on Thursday, December 21. We will gather at the church at 4:30 pm. Please bring a dozen or two of your favorite Christmas cookies to share with our seniors. We will put together cookie baskets and then head out to "Deck the Halls." Afterwards, we will enjoy a dinner out together for Christmas fellowship. Hope you can join us.

Annual Bunco/PotLuck Game Night - we will meet at church at 5:00 pm on Thursday, January 11, 2024 so that this year we can enjoy dinner together before we play Bunco. Please bring your favorite dish to pass (good old fashioned Lutheran pot-luck!), and also a few wrapped "white elephant" gifts to share for Bunco.

Feed My Starving Children Service Project - we will meet at the Libertyville FMSC site (742 East Park Avenue, Libertyville) on February 15, 4:30 - 6:15 pm to fulfill our mission statement! "Our mission is to be a church where all people are welcomed, fed and nourished in the name of Jesus Christ." Afterwards, we will continue our fellowship with going out for dinner.

Please mark your calendars for these three upcoming events. Thanks!

The church has a number of different ways to support your weariness and your joy in your daily life. We have two Advent devotionals available for you—one from the ELCA and the other from A Sanctified Art. There are two Advent calendars that invite adults and children into a deeper, more intentional Advent. Additionally, the church's Facebook page will have a new prompt to consider, which can serve as a helpful complement to the devotional.

Or, all of that is just Too Much right now and what you need the most is to pause and find a steady place to rest. Whatever approach you choose to take—all in or a pace removed—remember that God is with you, beloved.

"How does a weary world rejoice?

I would guess soul by soul and day by day.

But if you ask me,

I bet most of it counts."

(Excerpt from Rev. Sarah Speed's poem How Does a Weary World Rejoice)

Peace,
Pr Jenna

The Longest Night and a Liturgy for the Weary December 21 at 7pm.

St. Andrew and Grace Lutheran Church in Libertyville have partnered for a Liturgy for the Weary on Thursday, December 21, the longest night of the year. We will meet at St. Andrew at 7: pm. This service acknowledges that we can carry weariness even in the midst of a season of joy, and that God welcomes all of us just as we are—joy and weariness together.

Our time together will make space for individual contemplation and meditation, while also giving us the opportunity to spend time praying for the (anonymous) prayer request of someone else at the service. We hope you will join us for prayer, scripture, contemplative music, and a quiet space in the midst of the busyness right before Christmas. Friends and family are welcome.

Quilters Wonders!

Below are items that the Quilters have made and will be available for purchase, beginning Dec. 10th.

The Quilters Christmas Quilt (below) will also be raffled off during December!

Right now this fund is low and in need of donations. If you would like to make a contribution to this fund, you may give it to Pastor Jenna or Anita, send it to the church office, or place it in the Sunday morning offering plate.

Thank you for your generosity!

Coat Donations

"A HUGE thank you to everyone who donated coats, other outerwear, and blankets to share the warmth with the migrants who are still living in tents outside Chicago police stations. I was able to drop off an SUV-sized load at Luther Memorial Church in Chicago on November 22. They will ensure that the folks who need those items will get them. Thank you for your quick response to my last-minute request. Please continue to hold all the migrants in your prayers."

PRAYER VENTURES

December 2023

- 1 World AIDS Day Remember in prayer all who have been and continue to be affected by HIV and AIDS, and pray for the work we do together through the ELCA's HIV and AIDS Ministry — building awareness, serving people who live with HIV and AIDS, advocating for change, and supporting effective, affordable prevention, treatment and care globally.
- 2 The United Nations estimates that 90% of war-time casualties are suffered by civilians. Pray for an end to the violence, loss of life, suffering and injustice caused by war and conflict in the world, especially in Ukraine and the Middle East.
- 3 First Sunday of Advent Praise God, source of our hope, strength, healing and new life, and Jesus Christ, who lived among us to reveal God's grace.
- 4 Approximately 15% of the world's population lives with some form of disability, including about 42.5 million people in our country. Pray for the Spirit to sustain our commitment and guide our efforts to welcome, respect and fully include people with disabilities in every aspect of society and the church. Give thanks for the work and resources of ELCA Disability Ministry, the Evangelical Lutheran Deaf Association and the Lutheran Services in America–Disability Network.
- 5 Pray that we will not lose heart when we read stories of the church in decline or hear fewer people expressing faith in Christ. Ask the Spirit to strengthen our trust in God's unwavering presence and work in the world and to help us bring the gospel to those still yearning for hope, healing and good news. "Your people long to greet you, my hope, my heart's delight" (ELW 241).
- 6 Pray for ELCA missionaries serving alongside our global companions and churches around the world. Give thanks for communities of faith where our mission personnel worship and celebrate their faith with siblings in Christ.
- 7 Hanukkah Pray for our Jewish neighbors around the world who are beginning their eight-day celebration of Hanukkah — the Festival of Lights.
- 8 Remember in prayer people for whom the Christmas season stirs depression, loneliness and grieving. Promise to welcome these struggling people into our communities of faith and to connect them with new friends and siblings in Christ who will offer care and support during the holidays and throughout the year.
- 9 Reflect prayerfully on the symbolism of the Advent wreath and candles, which help us anticipate and celebrate God's boundless love and the promise of eternal life fulfilled in the birth of Christ — a light that breaks through the darkness of the world and changes everything.
- 10 Pray that we will be faithful and enthusiastic witnesses to the good news of Jesus Christ for all people in every circumstance of life.
- 11 Give thanks for our church's commitment to service, generosity, justice and ending hunger and poverty for the sake of our neighbors in need. Pray that the ELCA Good Gifts catalog and the ministries of the ELCA will help us understand the needs of our neighbors and how we can work together to make a lasting impact in the world.
- 12 Praise God for the diverse Advent and Christmas traditions of the Christian church around the world, traditions that enrich our faith and understanding of how Christ has impacted communities, cultures and nations.
- 13 Pause during the busyness of the holidays and pray for our neighbors in need, especially those experiencing suffering, poverty, war, recovery from disasters and displacement from their homes. Pray that they will find relief, hope and renewed strength in the certainty of God's attention and love, evidenced in the gift of Jesus Christ and reflected in our concern, response and advocacy.
- 14 Give thanks for the seasons of the liturgical year and the Scripture, colors, symbols, prayers, music and rituals of faith that help us live in the rhythm of life as children of God and siblings in Christ.

- 15 Ask God to help us reflect on those who are not present whenever we gather and to remember that these children of God bring unique voices, gifts and life experiences to the worship, activities and gatherings of our congregations.
- 16 Las Posadas Give thanks for the tradition of Las Posadas, which recalls Mary and Joseph's Nativity journey and is observed in parts of Latin America and in some Latino communities in the United States.
- 17 Pray that we will have the humility, honesty and boldness of John the Baptist, who did not shy away from expressing his faith in Jesus Christ even when challenged and threatened.
- 18 International Migrants Day Pray for those who, with great risk and uncertainty, have left their home countries and familiar surroundings to seek welcoming communities where they feel safe, respected and free to reestablish their lives and raise their families.
- 19 Give thanks to God for the assurance of life eternal in the kingdom of heaven and for the Spirit equipping us to embody God's compassion in the world while we await the return of Christ.
- 20 What stirs joy in you today? Give thanks for the people and experiences that bring joy into your life, even if only briefly. "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).
- 21 Winter solstice As the days of the Northern Hemisphere grow shorter, pray that we will be guided and reassured by the light of Christ, which illuminates God's love, mercy and truth in our lives and in every corner of the world.
- 20 Praise God for this time of remembrance, anticipation and celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, a birth that changed the world and our lives in ways that exceed our imagination and comprehension.
- 23 Give thanks for those who serve our communities during Christmas, including people in health care, elder care, law enforcement, the hospitality industry, emergency services and the military.
- 24 Christmas Eve Shout "Glory to God in the highest!" The good news of the birth of the promised Messiah and Savior for all creation and humankind has been made known to us and is the foundation of our faith and life.
- 25 Christmas Day Lift up shouts of thanksgiving and praise for all to hear! God lives among us in the birth of Jesus Christ and pours hope and joy into our lives to fill their voids and mend our brokenness.
- 26 Kwanzaa Pray for our African-descent neighbors and siblings in Christ who celebrate Kwanzaa, a weeklong observance of African culture and traditions that emphasizes family, community and shared principles. Give thanks for the rich and enduring practices of our African-descent siblings and the global African community.
- 27 Give thanks that the gift of grace found in Jesus Christ is both deeply personal and for all humankind. "Of what benefit would it be to me if Christ had been born a thousand times, and it would daily be sung into my ears in a most lovely manner, if I were never to hear that he was born for me and was to be my very own?" (Martin Luther, 1522).
- 28 Christmas may have come and gone, but we carry into every day the joy of Christmas and the birth of the Christ child, the manifestation of God's love for humanity. Give praise and thanks to God!
- 29 Lift up prayers of relief and thanksgiving for God's mercy, which is fair and generous and is never swayed by our actions or words, no matter how good or well-intended.
- 30 Share with God your hopes, concerns, uncertainties and aspirations for the year ahead. Pray for the Spirit to strengthen our faith in God's concern for us and in God's attention to our prayers — spoken and silent.
- 31 New Year's Eve Our baptism with water, the word of God and the blessings of our siblings in Christ marks us as children of God and followers of Jesus, loved, forgiven and made new every day of our lives. Alleluia!
